Star Insurance's Commitment to Protecting Your Privacy

Star Insurance has a long-standing commitment to protecting your privacy. As you may be aware, recent laws require that we provide you with notice as to how we protect your "nonpublic personal information." We want you to know that we are guided by our respect for the confidentiality of your personal information. The information you provided, or which we obtain when servicing your insurance coverage, is treated sensitively, and held secure in our hands. We are providing you with this notice in accordance with recent laws, and moreover, because we want you to understand that we value your privacy.

You do not need to respond to this notice in any way. It is informational, and intended to let you know the strength of our commitment to protecting your nonpublic personal information.

Information We Collect: Any nonpublic personal information that we obtained about you in the course of issuing insurance or providing you with any of our services in connection with insurance such as social security numbers, medical history, employment history, income information, or any type of nonpublic personal information will not be disclosed except as permitted or required by law.

Our Privacy and Security Procedures put measures in place to protect your personal information long before required by any federal or state laws. We enforce strict control over this information and limit access to those involved in administering your coverage, or providing services related to your coverage and this information is not disclosed except as permitted or required by law. We also evaluate our procedural safeguards on an ongoing basis and will maintain our commitment to you.

Information We Disclose: Star insurance does not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our customers or former customers to anyone, except as permitted or required by law. Text messaging opt-in data and consent is not shared with any third parties.

Star Insurance's Privacy Commitment understands the importance of protecting your private and confidential information. Our highest priority is to maintain your trust and confidence. We will maintain our commitment to safeguarding this information now and in the future.
